DUTCH SEIZE SEGMENTS OF EASTERN JAVA

INDONESIANS PUT UP STIFF FIGHT; 150 CASUALTIES

BY STANLEY SWINTON

Batavia, Java, Wednesday, July 23 (AP)—Rocket firing Dutch war planes made 15 attacks yesterday on the northern Java coast port of Cheribon, the Indonesian army said today, as Dutch seaborne invasion forces captured large segments of eastern Java.

In ground fighting the Republicans claimed they gained ground on the front west of Dutch-held Semarang where they launched a counterattack against Dutch troops yesterday.

The Indonesian communiqué, heard here by an unofficial radio monitor, made no mention of the situation at Jogjakarta, the Indonesian republic capital. A Dutch armored column was reported yesterday to have been slashed within 35 miles of Jogjakarta.

Planes Shot Down

Two Dutch planes were shot down during bombings and strafing at widely separated points, the Indonesians said.

The Republicans said Dutch troops had reached Paseroean on the north coast, about 20 miles west of Probolinggo, in an apparent expansion of the northeast Javan beachhead established on Monday by amphibious landings.

The Dutch turned inland at Paseroean, the Indonesians said, and marched in the direction of Malang, 35 miles inland. Malang was the normal meeting place of the Provisional Indonesian parliament.

Fighting was underway at Pandan, a few miles west of Paseroean.

At Madieno, located almost in the exact center of Java between Malang and Soerakarta, the Indonesians said a Dutch plane dropped two 50-pound bombs and made strafing attacks.

An Indonesian army communiqué issued at Jogjakarta said armed forces from Dutch-held Semarang, on the north central coast, had attacked the town of Salatiga for three hours, and then had withdrawn.

Salatiga is approximately 25 miles south of Semarang and 35 miles north of Jogjakarta. The Indonesian capital is in south central Java.

Advances Reported

Indonesian reports said resistance was stiffening, and the Dutch themselves conceded that sharp fighting was underway at several points in Java and one in Sumatra, the large island northwest of here.

A Netherlands communiqué said advances were made on half a dozen fronts, against relatively light resistance.

Dutch casualties yesterday—the first day of the armed conflict which the Dutch describe as "police action" and the Indonesians as a "colonial war"—were listed officially as 150 dead or wounded. (The Netherlands informed the United Nations in New York that it had been compelled to "resort to police measures" because of continued "acts of violence." The Dutch note charged that the Indonesians with "senseless destruction," maintaining a food blockade and circulating "hostile and inflammatory propaganda."

U. S. officials also disclosed that an Indonesian group in Brisbane, Australia, had sent a communication to the security council. The contents were not made public.

End Of Installment Buying Controls Is Approved By House

Washington, July 22 (AP)—Legislation to end immediately all government controls over installment buying was passed today by the House.

They require one-third down payments, with installments running no more than 15 months, on automobiles, cooking stoves and ranges, iceboxes, dishwashers, ironers, refrigerators, washing machines, room unit air conditioners, radios, phonographs, sewing machines and suction cleaners.

20 per cent down payment, with installments limited to 15 months, is required for furniture and soft surface floor coverings.

The bill, approved by the Senate, would extend the controls to December 31, with the down payment required to be more than 20 per cent, and the installments to be limited to two years.

Instead of granting the authority, the House voted to end the controls forthwith.

The Senate measure would extend consumer credit controls in modified form to Dec. 31. The two chambers now will seek to iron out their differences.

CO-OP PROGRAM WELL ATTENDED

Warehouse In Escanaba Is Dedicated; CCW Officials Here

About a hundred members of consumer cooperatives in the Upper Peninsula and Wisconsin attended the dedication of the Central Cooperative Wholesale's new warehouse in North Escanaba yesterday.

The modern warehouse, 60 by 160 feet, which was built by C. G. Bridges and leased to the CCW group for five years, was praised by speakers as a facility that enables stores of the region to furnish quicker and better service at a lower cost to cooperative members.

A. J. Marlowe, Superior, Wis., operations director of Central Cooperative Wholesale, who presided at the dedication program, said that opening of the warehouse here would provide an "actual savings of $14,000 on freight alone." Escanaba was selected as a distribution center by the cooperatives because of its ideal transportation facilities and favorable freight rate situation. Trucks are shuttled from the warehouses at Superior and Escanaba to serve the co-op stores all over the Upper Peninsula.

George Lindenthal, president of the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce, extended the greetings of the community to the cooperative groups, and introduced members of a citizens' committee which attended the program.

HAYES MAIN SPEAKER

The dedicatory address was delivered by A. J. Hayes, Superior, Wis., general manager of Central Cooperative Wholesale. John W. Miller, public relations director, conducted the Co-op time radio program, which originated from Station WDBC at 1 p.m. A meeting of store managers of the region was held in the morning. CCW officials of Superior in attendance also included: Waldemar Petrell, distributions manager; Helen Hayes, circulation manager of Co-op Builder; Tom Hiltunen, feature editor of Co-op Builder; Ted Hakkinen, commercial fieldman; and Arne Johnson, Trenary store manager, now president of the CCW board of directors. Co-op members came from Marquette, Rock, Trenary, Stephenson, Ishpeming, Hancock, Chassell, Tivola, South Range, Calumet, Bark River, Sault Ste. Marie, Munising, Manistique, Rudyard, Norway, Chatham, Ashland, Gladstone, Duluth, Cornell and Negaunee.

Fire Fighters Have Four Calls Tuesday

The fire department of Escanaba reported four calls yesterday, three of them for grass fires. One was re-start on the fire extinguished Monday in the rear of Sawyer and Stoll pole yard. The other two were at the fairgrounds.

A rubbish fire at Northern Motor Builders broke out of control at 12:43 p.m., but was extinguished before serious damage occurred.

Three-quarters of the maple syrup and sugar produced in the United States come from Vermont and New York.

• Here you see a squeak in the process of being exterminated ...

It's funny how a squeak "telegraphs" around—you think you've found it and then you haven't. But I found this baby—on that strip of rubber where the hood comes down. And I fixed it.

Of course, squelching squeaks is just part of a thorough lubrication job. And by the way, now is the time to have this done to your car—before your summer driving. To save time—make a date for a lubrication job now.

World Events Analyzed

BY MARQUIS CHILDS

Washington — When President Truman presented his program of aid for Greece and Turkey, he was criticized for failing to use the machinery of the United Nations. It was felt to be a blow at the standing of the U. N.

In the four months since that historic message, a great deal has happened to put this criticism in a different light. First, the U. N. commission sent to the Balkans to inquire into the causes of the Greek border dispute could not agree on a report.

The split was along familiar lines. Russia and Poland dissented from the careful, thoroughly documented statement drawn up by the other members of the special commission that had gone over the ground. The dissenters would not accept open and shut facts as unearthed by the investigators.

—SOVIET STALLS AGAIN—

Now for several weeks a wrangle has gone on in the security council. It is over an elementary proposal—whether the United Nations shall station a watchman on the Greek border. A commission in the role of watchman would merely report back to Lake Success the facts as observed on the spot.

The Soviet delegate has stalled and stalled and stalled on this proposal, with help from the Polish delegate. If the stalling tactics fail, then the Russians can fall back on the veto. This is occurring just at the time when the need for an impartial watchman is most obvious.

Behind the increasing tempo of the rebellion in northern Greece is a concerted effort launched from across the Greek border. The stupidities of the Greek government to one side, this can be the only explanation of the new outbreaks.

If this is not true, then an impartial watchman could report the real facts and the Russians would have support for their position that the trouble is internal. Alexandre Parodi, French member of the U. N. commission to Greece, made the suggestion that the border commission be composed of representatives of the smaller states with no stake in the Greek tragedy. That may be sound advice.

It has by now become abundantly clear that the Russian game is to stall in the U. N. while the Russian satellites promote rebellion in Greece. While President Truman would have done well to ask the help of the U. N. in the Greek program, it is obvious that Soviet tactics would never have permitted any immediate, practical program.

—TRUMAN SENT ETHEridge—

A significant sidelight on this whole controversy is the personality of the man who represented the United States on the U. N. commission to Greece—Mark Ethridge of Louisville, Kentucky. Ethridge has all his life been a progressive. His enemies have sometimes called him a radical.

Two years ago, President Truman sent him on a mission to the Balkans. Like many other progressives he wanted to believe the best about Soviet Russia, and if he went with any bias, it was in that direction.

But he is also a very able newspaper man who has learned to appraise and correlate the facts that come to his attention. In the course of several prolonged trips to Eastern Europe, he saw repeated evidence of Communist repression and Communist brutality.

As a member of the U. N. delegation to Greece, he fought persistently and resourcefully to bring out the facts. It was no easy task. The Russian opposition constantly put obstacles in his way. In many ways it was a thankless task. While it won the enmity of the Slavic bloc, few Americans have understood the importance of the effort Ethridge made as American delegate.

Here is a fair-minded man, of liberal progressive thought, who became convinced of the reality of the Soviet plot. Unlike a certain type of liberal, who would prefer not to be troubled by facts, Ethridge had both the ability and the courage to examine the truth in all its tragic meaning.

He saw that while persistent Communist propaganda made out the Greek government to be wholly repressive, the facts did not tally with that propaganda. Ethridge learned that more Democratic freedoms exist in Greece than in the satellite states, where repression is savage and unremitting.

Ethridge might well have played an important role in our own undertaking in Greece. The petty spite of certain senators made this impossible.

The United Nations was not an instrument for the relief of Greece. Recent events have demonstrated that unmistakably.

Did you hear about the generator the city fathers paid $20,000 for a year or so ago. Spent probably as much in trying to make it fit their other requirements then finally junked it for $5,000. Did you know about the small steam line they are now tearing up. It runs from the steam plant to the liquor store and then from there on they put in larger pipe and now find they can't feed a large pipe with a small one and maintain pressure. They have made a wonderful discovery. Now it will cost a few thousands to put in a larger pipe.

Do you ever notice the smoke from the Solar Mfg. Co? Why is it allowed to cloud our entire city? Ditto the city (steam) plant.

Sincerely, Jim Andrews

"You're a Little Premature, Aren't You?"

They're Used To It

THE story goes that an Englishman returned from America recently, and visited Prime Minister Clement Attlee at Number 10 Downing street, London.

He said to Attlee: "I've been in America for several years. Late there's been a lot of stir about Russia. At times it borders almost on hysteria. The Red Menace seems to be on everybody's mind. But here in England no one seems to be disturbed by it. How do you account for that? Is England calm because there's nothing to it?"

"I'll tell you," said Attlee. "It's because, for hundreds of years, the British, unlike the Americans, have been living next to constant danger, from one country or another. We've had to fight Philip of Spain, Louis XIV, Napoleon, the Kaiser, Hitler. When you live constantly in the presence of danger, sooner or later you get used to it."

Mr. Attlee could have added that when we live hand in hand with horror, we get used to that, too. Before the days of the first world war, crime, graft, divorce were rarities. When a son killed his mother, the whole nation shook with emotion. That was the crime of crimes, the last word in bestiality. Today we think nothing of it.

Edgar Hoover of F. B. I., looking ahead after the second world war, predicted a great increase in crime of all kinds in America. What he said is coming true with a vengeance, and it makes us wonder what the situation is in war-torn Europe.

War is the greatest breeder of crime, and we have rubbed elbows for so many years with the terrors of war that we are daily becoming more calloused and less mindful of the degree of our slipping from former standards.

Perhaps Nature is making us tough-minded so that we can endure what is coming. We have taken the lead in a very destructive invention, the atom bomb, and it may be used against us at any time. Many competent observers believe that we are drifting into another war, more awful than all the wars that ever cursed the world. We, too, are in danger, if some way cannot be found to abolish war.

Safeguards are Required

FRENCH objections have blocked British-American plans for increasing the level of German steel production in the Ruhr to 10,000,000 tons annually because the French are apprehensive that a boost in German heavy industry will constitute a threat to French security.

The French position is understandable enough in view of the fact that France has been overrun by German armies so many times in the last half century. Unfortunately, however, European economic rehabilitation is closely tied up with the industrial Ruhr and unless the level of industrial production is increased, solution to the economic problems of all of western Europe, as well as Germany, will be further retarded.

It is not only possible but essential that the Allied Nations provide assurances to France that increased industrial production in Germany's Ruhr valley will not constitute a threat to French security. This will necessitate adequate safeguards that such production will be used for peaceful purposes only and not for the rebuilding of a German army. The creation of these safeguards is an obligation owed not only to France but to all of the peace-loving peoples of the world. It is certainly an obligation owed to American soldiers who were killed or maimed in driving the Nazis out of the territories that they had overrun.

In the plans to boost the Ruhr production level in the combined British-American zone, there can be no room for suspicion that the increased production may become a means by which Germany can ever launch a new program of aggression.

25 Years of Service

PINECREST Sanatorium in Powers is observing its 25th anniversary this month, fittingly enough without great fanfare although the institution has just cause to be proud of its record of a quarter century of public service.

The sanatorium, which started in July, 1922 with a staff of 15 persons, now has a personnel of 60. It has treated approximately 3,000 tubercular patients in the 25 years of its existence but of even greater importance, it has assumed leadership in an educational program that has materially lowered the tuberculosis incidence.

The facilities for tubercular examination and treatment at Pinecrest are among the most modern in the nation and its laboratory has received national recognition for research in sputum and gastric examinations.

Pinecrest has contributed immensely to the great progress that science has made in the treatment of tuberculosis. As a result of that scientific progress, a person who contracts tuberculosis today has at least a 50 per cent better chance of total recovery than tubercular patients of 25 years ago. Scientific methods also have been developed that makes possible early discovery of the disease, simplifying the treatment necessary for total recovery.

Despite this acknowledged progress in the examination and treatment of tuberculosis, the disease is still a greater killer, as testified by the 53,000 American lives that are snuffed out each year by tuberculosis.

There is reason to hope that tuberculosis will be conquered in the years ahead, perhaps in the next 25 years of Pinecrest's history. If that hope is realized, it is certain that Pinecrest Sanatorium and its director, Dr. John Towey, who has been in charge of the institution through all of its history, will play an important part in the scientific research that will make the attainment of that objective possible.

We're Missing a Bet

"THERE'S nothing like walking for exercise," says William Brady, "the horse-and-buggy doctor of Beverly Hills, California, in his pamphlet, 'The Seven Keys to Vite.'

"Walking as the ideal health exercise may not appeal to everybody," continues Dr. Brady. "In recent years we have had revivals of bicycling, roller skating, and ice skating. It would be a boon to the physical and spiritual welfare of the country if we could have a national revival of walking, a return to popularity of the daily 'constitutional' of bygone days."

"The back trail movement is steadily gaining in this country—the establishment of trails exclusively for foot travelers, with hospices at reasonable distances along the trail for overnight shelter. The movement answers a desire of young people and those with considerable leisure, or people on vacation."

"What Colonel Tom, Grandma Dick and Aunt Harriet really need is just a few miles of walks or paths straightaway, round and round, or hither and yon, where they may ambulate in reasonable security when so inclined."

This brings to mind the oft-repeated statement of Warren H. Manning, well

GOAL ACHIEVED

(Chicago Daily News)

Robert P. Patterson timed his resignation as Secretary of War one day before Congress finally passed the bill uniting the Army, the Navy and the Strategic Air Forces under a single secretary. With this goal in sight, he was ready to retire to private life.

This bill is probably the most constructive piece of work to come from the present Congress. It should mean greater efficiency at less expense than would otherwise be possible in the armed services. For the first time our defense organization recognizes the full importance of the air.

Patterson's good work in helping to procure passage of the unification bill entitles him to an extra measure of gratitude from his countrymen. His services during the war were of a high and historic order. As undersecretary, he had many duties which normally would have been exercised by the secretary in person, but which Henry L. Stimson, because of his age, was physically unable to perform. Supply was Patterson's special province. The amplitude of our supply and its efficient delivery to the fighting fronts scattered around the world confounded our enemies and made our victories in combat possible.

It would help a lot if hog prices applied only to hogs.

JOB SITUATION IS IMPROVED

About 60 Private Homes Under Construction In Escanaba

Improvement in the employment situation in the Upper Peninsula is indicated in the labor market letter issued this week by the Michigan State Employment Service.

Logging and lumbering workers continued to be recalled after the spring layoffs and the industry's employment was expanded by nearly 20 per cent between mid-May and mid-June. Other seasonal activities, mainly tourist business, have needed considerable numbers of additional workers, while employment in manufacturing was up only slightly during the month.

Since V-J Day, 195 new firms have entered the Upper Peninsula. The industrial influx has brought jobs to a total of 2,270 persons, and these same companies expect to add 1,800 more to reach their peak. About one third (67) of the firms are in manufacturing, and they account for two-thirds (1,470) of the new workers. Lumber and wood products brought 17 of the manufacturers into the Upper Peninsula, while most of the non-manufacturing firms are in trade and service.

The labor situation in various communities follows:

Escanaba—Employment continued to show small gains. Two new concerns, glove manufacturing company and a foundry, began operations in June and plan to expand as rapidly as possible. With fewer job openings, labor turnover is reported to be decreasing. Between 50 and 60 private homes are under construction throughout the area.

Hancock—Seasonal demand for labor in outdoor activities and trade caused employment to increase by 500 in Houghton and Keweenaw Counties. Further rises in employment are expected throughout the summer months.

Iron Mountain—Employment gains were made in June as a result of increased activity in service industries and in wholesale and retail trade. The construction of an addition to the paper mill at Niagara, Wis., was not completed during June as expected, but will probably be finished about mid-July. No information regarding the starting date of the construction of the Veterans' Hospital at Iron Mountain is forthcoming at this time. The City of Norway is conducting an industrial survey of local facilities for the purpose of attracting new industries.

Ironwood—The slow return of normal working conditions in the woods has retarded full employment in the logging and lumbering industry in Gogebic County. One of the larger mining companies is preparing to open a new iron ore mine east of Wakefield which will eventually employ 150 men. A trailer coach manufacturer has increased employment and a glove factory has also hired additional workers. Demand for resort workers still exists, although the industry has suffered from a late start in the tourist season.

Menominee—During the month, the downward trend in employment in manufacturing was halted. The future trend is toward a slight temporary increase, with more workers scheduled to be added for processing sugar beets in the fall.

Sault Ste. Marie—Employment gains, primarily in service and trade activities, have brought employment in Chippewa County to the highest level in more than three years. Demands of the tourist industry, especially for waitresses and kitchen help, cannot be met by the local supply of workers. Highway construction may absorb more than 50 additional local workers within the next month.

St. Ignace—Employment is reported to be steady. Tourist resort operators have reached peak employment and have had little difficulty recruiting workers. Private construction projects will require approximately 150 workers during July.

The piranhas, man-eating fish of the Amazon are said to be able to devour a whole cow in five minutes.

Cain, 604 West B street, has had only one employer in his 30 years of active work—the Michigan Bell Telephone Company—and today, as district construction foreman for the Iron Mountain-Menominee-Ironwood-Escanaba district, he is still hard at it, and is receiving the congratulations of his friends and associates.

Starting with the company at 18 years of age, Cain has never had other employment, and has been advanced steadily through the ranks.

He first went with the company in his native Ishpeming as student installer in 1917. He has since performed just about every plant duty in this section of Michigan. Last year, he was promoted successively to line foreman and district construction foreman.

When is a rate increase a good thing for telephone users?

THE right price is "the lowest possible price that will assure you of good quality." That's true of everything you buy, including telephone service.

So—answering the question above—a rate increase is a good thing for telephone users when it is needed to protect their interests from a service standpoint.

The last time there was an increase in telephone rates was 21 years ago. From 1926 until 1937, rates went down substantially. Since 1937, there have been still further local reductions in a number of exchanges and decreases in toll rates. Except for those further reductions, 1937 rates haven't changed, although the cost of most things—wages, taxes, supplies—has gone up.

Just since the war, wage adjustments alone have upped our costs $11,000,000 a year. This includes settlements reached during the recent strike.

Lump all our costs together and you'll find they've gone up much faster than our income. Since 1937, our income has gone up 141%. But costs have gone up 193%. And our return on investment has dropped more than a third.

NOTE: Where the term "Income" is used above, its meaning is the same as "Revenue" or "Gross Income." Where the term "Investment" is used, it means the original cost of the telephone property less the depreciation reserve accrued against the ultimate retirement of the property.

Now we face the fact that 1937 rates won't work in 1947.

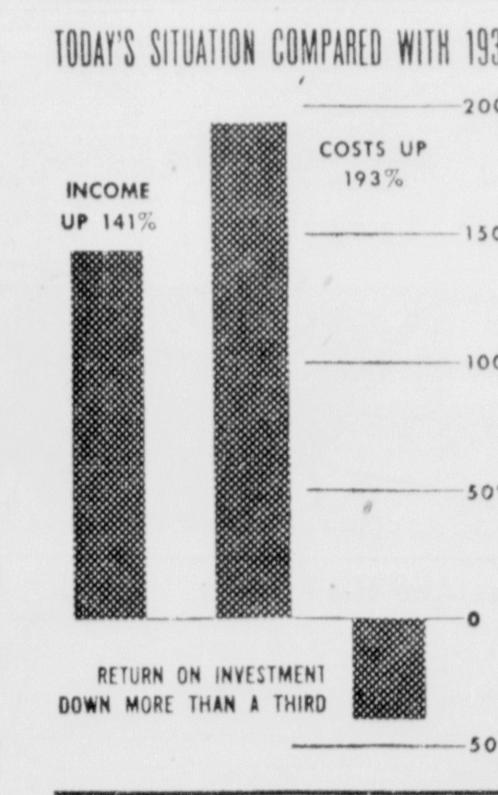

We don't like a rate increase any more than you do. We've waited until the last possible moment to ask for one. But that moment has now arrived.

There's a lot of work to be done and a lot of money to be spent to give more and better service to everybody who wants it. The money will have to come from investors. They will furnish it only if they can be sure of a fair return, which our present rates are simply too low to provide. A growing business, especially, has to earn a good return in order to attract the capital needed for growth.

Telephone rates are regulated by the Michigan Public Service Commission, a body established by State law and appointed by the Governor. We're going to ask the Commission for a public hearing to review our proposed new schedule of rates. During the week of August 3, we'll publish details of the proposed rates throughout Michigan Bell territory.

After that, we'll file a petition with the Public Service Commission.

The whole future of Michigan's telephone service depends on raising rates enough to assure the financial stability of your telephone company. We're sure you want us to take this step to assure you the kind of service you want.

Need Of Apprentice Training Emphasized; U. S. Director Heard

William F. Patterson, director of the Apprentice Training service of the United States Department of Labor, addressed an assemblage of some 85 persons of Escanaba and vicinity last night in the city council chambers. Focal point of his address was emphasis of the urgent need for apprentices and the necessity of inter-group cooperation.

Preceding Mr. Patterson's talk, Clarence Pearson, coordinator for the apprentice program here, requested numerous members representative of the various offices in Escanaba to speak before the group in order to bring to light any specific problems or difficulties.

Mr. Patterson stressed the part of the apprentice-trained workers in the recent war. Though we were caught short then, the situation was met.

"The future of the security of the United States is directly dependent upon our craftsmen," stated Mr. Patterson.

An appreciation of the skill of the trained craftsmen and recognition by employers is essential to such a training program, the apprentice training director declared. Employers and labor must collaborate and provide on-the-job training for young men to keep their industry stable.

Following the principal address the assembly was open for discussion. After initial technical questions were cleared Mayor Marvin Coon and City Engineer Loren Jenkins posed questions similar in nature which set the period off to an enlightening forum.

"Has a survey of the needs of Upper Michigan been made in respect to the number of apprentices in training?" queried the Mayor. Jenkins pointed out that unless the apprentice program were based on nation-wide surveys, a true educational function could not be performed by the apprentice program. If such were the case a man's best bet, if he were a skilled craftsman, would be to remain in the community where he apprenticed himself.

Procedure for making such a survey and formation of an advisory council to decide whether apprentices could learn in particular establishments and the desirability of such was discussed. Danger of unscrupulous individuals or concerns exploiting veterans in on-the-job training was emphasized by Henry Mosher of the Veterans Administration.

Among those attending from out-of-town were Elmo Burns of Muskegon, Field Representative for the National Apprentice Training program; Howard Skinner of Marquette, Stanley Carlton of Manistique, Richard Chard of Iron Mountain, and Conan Fisher of Gladstone.

Escanabans attending, in addition to some 20 indentured apprentices and employers cooperating in their training, were Elmer Olson of the Michigan Employment Office, James Schram of the Office of Apprentice-training, Gerald Cleary of the OVA, Richard Mosher of the Veteran's Administration, Mayor Marvin Coon, and City Engineer Loren Jenkins.

G-C PROMOTES QUEEN CONTEST

Winner Of Local Votes To Represent County At U. P. Fair

Munising—The Munising Chamber of Commerce meeting in session Monday evening decided to promote a queen contest to select a local girl to represent Alger county in the U. P. State Fair Queen contest to be held the opening day of the fair at Escanaba, August 19.

Contestants for the local contest must not be under 16 years of age nor over 21 years of age, the same qualifications as passed down by the officials of the Fair Queen contest. Lew Merwin, secretary of the C. of C. said.

Balloons for nominating girls to participate in the Alger contest will be published in the local newspapers.

Nominations for this year's Alger county queen must be turned in prior to August 11 when the judging will be held. The board of directors for the Munising Chamber of Commerce will act as judges for the local contest.

Virginia (Honey) Morrison represented Alger county at the U. P. State Fair Queen contest last year. Her queen costume was made of wood to represent the wood industry in this county. The costume for this year's prospective Queen has, as yet, not been selected.

The queen chosen in the Alger county contest will automatically qualify for participating in the U. P. State Fair contest, the winner of which will receive valuable prizes and reside in a hotel in Escanaba the full week of the Fair.

She will also act as official hostess for the Fair. In last year's contest there were 18 entries representing 15 cities in the Upper Peninsula.

WSCS MEETS

Munising—The Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church will meet in the church parlors today at 2:30 p. m. to hear the reports of delegates who attended the WSCS Institute at Michigamme last week.

A pot-luck lunch will be served following the business session.

Mrs. Earl Ness, local president, will be in charge of the meeting.

County Medical Society Endorses RC Blood Plan; Gladstone Lions Help

The Delta County Medical Society yesterday announced that it would endorse the Red Cross Blood clinic to be held in Escanaba August 11-15. Another important development in the preparations was noted when the Lions club of Gladstone agreed to sponsor the blood clinic to be held there on the mornings of August 12 and 13.

Gladstone has been asked to contribute 80 donors for the all-out campaign to build up blood reserves for emergency use. Sgt. Willard Wixom of the Gladstone Lions will chairman the committee on solicitations, which commences today.

An added advantage in addition to the blood banks for the individual who donates is the type and factor card which the Red Cross will give each. On this card will be found all information necessary for transfusing of blood in case of emergency.

Type Cards Given

The blood type card, showing Rh factor, given to each person contributing blood to Michigan's Plasma program here in Delta county can prove to be priceless in time of need, Dr. J. J. Diamond, president of the Medical Association, pointed out yesterday.

"Each blood donor's type is noted for him on a card that should be carried with him at all times," Dr. Diamond explained.

The RH factor is something new that Michigan residents are getting from the plasma program and it is the type factor that remains after one's blood has been classified as either type A—type B—type AB or type O. One's blood is either RH positive or RH negative, the latter being a fairly rare classification.

When residents of Delta county contribute their blood at the clinic to be held August 11-15, they are not only helping their neighbors, but are perhaps making it possible to save their own lives at some later date, Dr. Diamond declared.

Result Of Accident
In Gravel Pit

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 Thursday afternoon at the Morton Funeral Home for Addison Clare Williams, 28, who died Monday afternoon at Pickford as a result of an accident in a gravel pit. The Rev. J. D. B. Adams will conduct the services and burial will be in Fairview cemetery.

The young man was killed when the gravel loading bin under which he had driven collapsed, burying him under tons of gravel. Employed by the Whitehead Construction company of Sault Ste. Marie, he had backed his truck under the bin and is believed to have struck one of the props of the structure and dislodged it. The weight of the gravel crushed the cab and a moment later the gas tank caught fire and Williams was horribly burned.

For more than two hours men at the scene worked frantically to get the man out of the vehicle, but it was only after a hole had been cut through the roof with a blow torch, that the body could be removed. The body was brought back to Manistique late that evening.

Mr. Williams was born in Manistique on August 24, 1918, and attended schools here and later at Cooks. On September 23, 1940 he was married in Manistique to Miss Nina Yoder. They have one son, John Carl. He attended the Methodist church.

Surviving are his widow and son, his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Williams, of Cooks; three brothers, Milton, Sault Ste. Marie; Dale, Manistique; Henry, Cooks; two sisters, the Misses Ida Rae and Ellen Lee, Cooks.

Rash Of Motor
Mishaps Breaks
Out In Vicinity

An epidemic of motor mishaps struck the Manistique vicinity over the weekend, bringing destruction of property in some instances and sessions in local justice court for others.

Sunday afternoon, Ray Conners, of Tri Mountain, while attempting to come to a stop at the intersection of Chippewa and Deer streets, skidded out into Deer street and ran into a car owned by Andrew Maitland, of Manistique. The Maitland car was badly damaged and Conners was given a summons for not having his car under proper control.

Later in the afternoon, about 4 o'clock, John P. Lagina, driving a new Frazer car, stopped at the intersection of North Cedar street and Elk street and then started up again, failing to notice the near approach of a car driven by William Greer, of Manistique. The Lagina car was badly damaged and a child in the front seat was hurt. Damage to the other car was not so severe.

On Highway M-77, near Highway US-2, about 10 o'clock Sunday evening, a car driven by John Kettola, of Germfask, collided with one driven by Alex Wood of Manistique. Though the cars suffered damage, no one was injured. Kettola paid a fine of $50 and $5 costs the following day for driving a car while under the influence of liquor.

Early Monday morning cars driven by Virgil Diro of Gulliver and John William Stirtola of Detroit, collided near the Green schoolhouse about 2½ miles east of Gulliver. Both cars were badly damaged, but injuries were slight. Stirtola was given a summons for not having his driver's license with him.

Among matters discussed at the after dinner program was a report by County Agricultural Agent Clayton Reid, of his recent trip to Beltsville, Md., where county agents from all over Michigan attended sessions conducted under the direction of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Also of local interest was an address by Richard Wille, of the Inland Lime &amp; Stone company, on the uses of lime for agriculture and its production.

An open forum on dealers' problems followed with John Lamotte, of Escanaba, president of the association, presiding over the discussions. Lee Richards, local dealer, was in charge of the program.

Specially honored at the meeting was Ed Marenger, of Escanaba, International Harvester dealer, whose birthday anniversary occurred on the day of the meeting. A birthday cake was served in his honor and he was presented with a new John Deere tractor (a toy) as a memento.

As a result of this trip the Braults will have gone a long way toward realizing their ambition to see something of every state in the Union. They have already visited 40 states, several of the Canadian provinces and Havana, Cuba.

The Manistique V. F. W. Auxiliary to Post 4420 held a regular meeting at Minor's Deepath Lodge on Monday evening. Following a short business session a social evening was enjoyed. Prizes in five hundred were awarded to Mrs. Matilda Demars, high, and Mrs. Hattie Miller of Cooks, second. In other games, Mrs. Ethel MacLean received high, and Mrs. Vivian Bradley, second. Refreshments were served later by the following hostesses: Mesdames Wanda LaMuth, Martha Malloch, Leoline Minor, and Mina and Eleanor Maitland.

The central polling place was approved by the city commission about six months ago, but too late for use in the spring election, after City Attorney G. W. Jackson had ruled that it was legal under the general election laws of Michigan.

While all electors will vote at the city hall, polling places and booths will be set up for each individual precinct and voters of each precinct will be handled by their respective board.

There are nine aspirants for the Congressional post left vacant by the death of Congressman Fred Bradley of Rogers City. Seven of them are Republicans and two Democrats.

The primary will decide the two candidates to oppose each other in the special election on Tuesday, August 26.

Twenty-six dealers in farm equipment from various sections of eastern upper Michigan were present at the second meeting of the newly organized Upper Peninsula Implement Dealers association at Hotel Ossau Monday evening.

Among matters discussed at the after dinner program was a report by County Agricultural Agent Clayton Reid, of his recent trip to Beltsville, Md., where county agents from all over Michigan attended sessions conducted under the direction of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Also of local interest was an address by Richard Wille, of the Inland Lime &amp; Stone company, on the uses of lime for agriculture and its production.

An open forum on dealers' problems followed with John Lamotte, of Escanaba, president of the association, presiding over the discussions. Lee Richards, local dealer, was in charge of the program.

Specially honored at the meeting was Ed Marenger, of Escanaba, International Harvester dealer, whose birthday anniversary occurred on the day of the meeting. A birthday cake was served in his honor and he was presented with a new John Deere tractor (a toy) as a memento.

As a result of this trip the Braults will have gone a long way toward realizing their ambition to see something of every state in the Union. They have already visited 40 states, several of the Canadian provinces and Havana, Cuba.

SENATORS STOP TIGERS, 6 TO 1

Early Wynn Gives Only
Two Hits To Notch
His 11th Victory

Washington, July 22 (P)—Early Wynn notched his 11th victory of the season for the Washington Senators here tonight, stopping Detroit 6-1, on two hits.

Manager Steve O'Neill of the Tigers finished the game under protest. He complained against Umpire Bill McGowan's ruling on a rundown play in the sixth inning, when Wynn and Eddie Yost both wound up on third base. O'Neill protested both runners were tagged out, but McGowan called only Wynn out.

Mickey Vernon's triple, scoring Buddy Lewis, put the Senators into a 1-0 lead off Al Benton in the first inning but the Tigers tied the score in the fifth. Washington gained four runs in the fifth and added their final run off Stubby Swift, called in the eighth.

FOREIGN POLICY SURVEY BOOKED

Committee Named To See How U. S. Dollars Can Best Be Spent

Washington, July 22 (P)—The House created today an unprecedented 19-member special committee to make a global survey of United States foreign policy as a preliminary to determining how American dollars can best be spent to speed world stability.

The action was by voice vote after brief debate. It does not require Senate concurrence. Speaker Martin (R-Mass) will name the members later.

"It seems to me," said Rep. Clarence Brown (R-Ohio), "and I believe to any responsible individual, that the Congress, which is being called upon to appropriate vast sums of money for relief abroad, should be informed on what's going on in Europe."

Rep. Keepe (R-Wis) agreed, saying that in past the administration has come before Congress after committing the country to some particular foreign program and has requested funds "on a piecemeal basis."

A few minutes later, the House passed another resolution empowering its standing committee on foreign affairs to make an independent study of its own on the world situation.

SOVIET SPIES FLOODING U. S. WITNESS SAYS

5. Similar information was obtained on submarines.

6. Russia assuredly is pouring out "material, manpower and money" at home to "get the atomic bomb."

7. "Any hope that the (Russian) government may be overthrown from the inside by the forces of the people is built on sand."

Police Guard People

Kravchenko said if the roofs could be cut off all the homes in Moscow in one night and someone could hear what the people are saying, it would disclose 75 per cent of the Russians oppose their present regime. But the opposition is unorganized, and no revolution is possible.

The witness pictured Soviet secret police sitting over a large segment of the people, guarding some with guns and dogs, and enforcing "slave labor" on 17,000,000 to 20,000,000 people in various fields of industry.

He accused the government of "barbarian" practices.

Kravchenko told of walking out himself on the Soviet purchasing commission and writing a best seller, "I Chose Freedom." He said his dissatisfaction with his own government began building up as early as 1933.

He said the policy of the government was "double-faced" toward its own people, toward its war-time allies, and now toward a new world in creation.

Russia, he said, is largely responsible for the United Nations' "marking time" and failing to justify the hopes of millions of people.

Kravchenko said he does not think Russia will change her policy of "blackmail and lies" but unless she does she and her satellites will leave or be expelled from the U. N.

Thus the world would be split into two camps, conflict would be inevitable, he said, and the lion's share of the responsibility would be with the Soviet government.

Neighbors reported seeing an automobile and trailer in the vicinity late Monday.

The explosion took place in a two-family house. Police said it apparently originated in the kitchen. Windows were blown out and the interior damaged.

"The explosion," he said, "blew me over the table and across the room."

Hughes and a daughter, Letha, 23, suffered minor injuries.

Impartial Rules For New Michigan Labor Law Drafted

Lansing, July 22 (P)—Both labor and management will be consulted in the drawing up of rules and regulations under Michigan's new labor law, Chairman Phillip Weiss of the state labor mediation board said today.

The new law, bitterly opposed by organized labor groups, requires compulsory arbitration of hospital and public utility disputes and a majority vote for strike action in other disputes.

"We are taking this course to insure impartiality," Weiss said.

"Those who consider current labor disputes a test of the law are under a misapprehension," Weiss said, pointing out that the law does not go into effect until Oct. 11.

BENTON HARBOR PICKETS BEATEN

Flying Wedge Of Police Breaks CIO Line At Remington-Rand

Benton Harbor, Mich., July 22 (P)—Five CIO strikers were injured slightly today when a "flying wedge" of 50 policemen broke a picket line at the Remington-Rand Corp. for the second time in as many days.

Joseph Bernard, 40, of St. Joseph, a sympathizer from another plant, was arrested after Sheriff Edwin H. Kubath said he resisted officers. No charge was placed against him.

The sheriff denied charges by Local 931, CIO United Electrical Workers, that police used night sticks against pickets. He said none of the injuries reported were serious.

Company officials said 94 production workers returned to their jobs after the picket line was broken.

An estimated 400 employees walked out three weeks ago in a demand for a 15 cent an hour wage increase. The company offered seven cents hourly plus six annual paid holidays.

The union estimated the average hourly rate at the plant as 70 cents for women and $1 for men.

In a similar picket line scuffle, Monday, Owen Smith, 37-year-old union field organizer from Detroit, was charged with inciting others to resist an officer and interfering with a worker in pursuit of his job. He was freed under $1,000 bond to await examination July 25.

Britain Allowed To Stretch Scarce U. S. Loaned Dollars

Washington, July 22 (P)—Answering British pleas, the United States today changed a clause of the $3,750,000,000 loan agreement to help Britain stretch out its fast disappearing dollar resources.

Government officials disclosed the American government has ruled that London can reduce purchases from the United States and buy more from its colonies without violating the loan accord.

A "non-discrimination" provision in article nine of the loan agreement previously prevented the British from restricting imports from the United States in order to conserve scarce dollars.

Government officials emphasized, however, the ruling applies only to British purchases from "non self-governing territories" such as Jamaica and Tanganyika.
